Everyone needs a spiritual home

WELCOME TO ZION

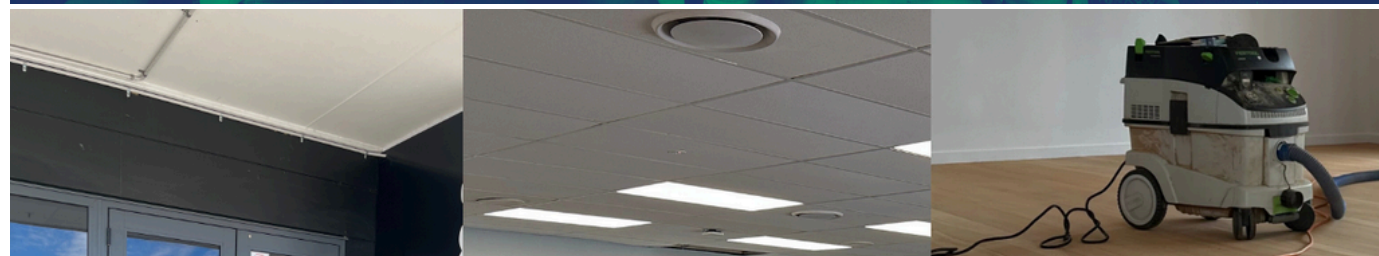

As we enter the season of Lent, we are reminded that our faith is formed in rhythms. On Sunday, we heard about Rhythms of Grace. Lent invites us to lean more deeply into these rhythms. It's a season to slow down, return to prayer, and create space for God to shape us.

This Sunday, we will continue that conversation by exploring the practices that shape us. As we journey toward Easter together, we are expectant that God will prepare our hearts to encounter the hope and power of the resurrection in fresh ways.

We are praying for you this week and look forward to gathering together on Sunday.

Blessings,
Josh & Kayla Duckett

RECENT HIGHLIGHTS

This week Josh Duckett shares a powerful message on the four expressions of God's grace—Saving, Sanctifying, Sustaining, and Serving Grace. We're reminded that Christ is our source, our strength, and the one who shapes our inner life. His grace saves us, grows us, sustains us, and empowers us to serve with humility.
